Volume 2023, Number 8

December 2023

From Our President

Betsy Grannis

I know that there have been Christmas displays and ads for Black Friday for months now, but I finally must admit to myself that the holidays are really here! So many projects and fundraisers are going on for our club at this time of year, it feels like we are asking for support from our members every week. Thank you for stepping up and helping wherever you can.

I would like to send out a big thank you to everyone who volunteered for the Serve the Need Thanksgiving meal, whether you baked brownies or helped that day or both. It was a wonderful event and each of your contributions made a big difference.

Our Tree Lighting Food Sale was on November 30th. This event was earlier than it has been in years past, but we were ready to serve food at 4:30pm. This is always a great event and hope you were able to join in the festivities in downtown Clayton!

We are also busy working on two of our club's favorite service projects. Thank you to all of those who are shopping for a senior in our Golden Wishes program; and those who are shopping for the children of our Christmas Kids program. This is a gentle reminder that all the gifts for our Golden Wishes seniors are to be delivered by Sunday, December 10th. We will be collecting the Christmas Kids gifts around the same time, but will be sending a confirmation email when we have established the collection date – please stay tuned. It means so much to the recipients of these gifts; and thank you for the gift of your time in assisting with these projects.

The Murder Mystery Dinner committee has been finalizing plans for our very fun fundraising event. The dates are Friday, January 12th and Saturday, January 13th and you can find further information here in the newsletter. Margaret Lee and Nancy Maynard will have more information to share at our December meeting; volunteer opportunities, tickets to sell, flyers to distribute, and everything!

Finally, I would like to thank you all for the contributions you make, even in this busiest time of the year. Thank you for choosing to make life better for those around us.

I wish all of you a Blessed Holiday Season and a Joyous New Year!

Health & Wellness CSP

Co-Chairs: Nancy Maynard, Deborah Fuller, & Judy Ryan

Thank you, Debra Beal, for making and delivering the meal to the ladies and staff at House of Hope. Your time and talents are greatly appreciated!

What a perfect fall day for our walk at Clemmons Educational State Forest! We even spotted an araneus marmoreus! Nature is so good for the mind and soul. If anyone has any suggestions for our next hike, please let us know.

Speaking of walking----The Red Barn Dog Rescue is in desperate need of "dog walkers". If interested, please contact them at volunteer@redbarnrescue.com. Dog walkers need to be at least 15 years old. Thank you, Mary Ellen, for the tip.

Members of the Health & Wellness CSP gathered on November 20th to create some warm and cozy "no-sew blankets" for some of the residents at Springbrook Rehabilitation and the residents at the House of Hope. We also wrote Christmas cards for the Springbrook residents. Those attending were Nancy Maynard, Deborah Fuller, Susan Press, Patti Farmer, Tina Zimmerman, Judy Ryan, along with 2 guests...Margaret, Nancy's daughter, and Maggie, Susan's friend.

November 16th was Great American Smoke Out day. The inception of the idea stems from a 1970 event in Randolph Massachusetts. High school guidance counselor, Arthur P Mullaney asked people to give up cigarettes for one day and donate the money they saved to the high school scholarship fund. For their own good—please keep trying to get those relatives at your dinner tables to quit smoking.

Let's face it, the holidays can be stressful.

Some of the "triggers" to watch for are:

1. fatigue
2. unrealistic expectations,
3. over commercialization
4. financial stress
5. not being able to be with loved ones.

Some ways to help "fight" holiday stress and depression:

Set boundaries (it's okay to say no)
Stay connected with loved ones,
Volunteer and give,
Limit social media use,
Don't be afraid to ask for support and help.

May ya'll have a peaceful and blessed Christmas.

Have you ever considered that God has fallen in love
with you?

He sends you flowers
every spring. He sends you sunshine every morning. Whenever you want to talk, He listens
to you. He can live
anywhere in the universe,
but He chooses your
heart. Amen

Thank you, TWCC members, for your generous support for the CEO's project to collect coats for HER HAVEN of Light! There were over 100 gently used coats donated by our club for Her Haven's annual "Coats & Cocoa" event. HER HAVEN of Light is a nonprofit organization located in Clayton that provides resources to women dealing with domestic violence, rape, teenage pregnancy, homelessness, abortion recovery, eating disorders and suicide loss. The leaders of HER HAVEN will be the speakers at the January TWCC monthly lunch meeting, and they are excited to share the good work they are doing in our community.

We also appreciate the club members who assisted with OneCompassion's holiday ministry. One Compassion is a Clayton-based nonprofit organization that sponsors a number of events each year. They champion a holiday ministry to help low-income families celebrate Christmas. Last year, OneCompassion raised $50,000 and used those funds to purchase food, clothing, toys and household items for 137 families that included 433 children. Thank you to Rhonda Nielsen, Deborah Fuller, Karla Rajca, Edie Brown and Karen Keeslar for assembling "Happy Birthday, Jesus!" cake kits to go with the food, clothing and Christmas gifts that OneCompassion is providing families they are sponsoring. Many thanks also to Rhonda Nielsen, Judy Ryan, Brenda Hill, Susan Johnson, Dianne Carroll, Tina Zimmerman, and Karen Keeslar who joined volunteers from other organizations to shop for the items that will be provided to their families.

ESO Book Club

Chair: Brenda Gay

Our Epsilon Sigma Omicron (ESO) book club met on Monday, November 6th with eleven members present. As chair of the book club, I am always impressed with all the great books the members read. They give great book reports on their book and even if other members cannot be present, they send a report of a book they have read over the month.

A list is kept of all our ESO book reports if anyone is interested in obtaining a list. Listed below are three books that were reported on at our November book club:

"The Cone Sisters of Baltimore" by Nancy H. Ramage & Ellen B. Hirschland (Genre: Non-Fiction) Report given by Carrole Dayton

"The Red Widow" by Sarah Horowitz (Genre: Biography + Autobiography) report by Betsy Grannis

"Johnston County Creates" (50 Years of Creativity) Edited and produced by Evelyn Wool (Genre: "This is a work of nonfiction. Organizations and individuals featured in this book applied or were nominated for inclusion". One of our members, Artist, Val Taylor is listed on page 259 of this book. Val was featured in our September ESO article. For information contact Johnston County Art Council, 1115 Outlet Center Drive, Smithfield, NC 27577 (All the books were of interest but this one especially)

There is a monthly magazine titled "Book Page" which has some very interesting books listed in it. The Hocutt-Ellington Library usually have several of these available. Also, other places of business may also have the magazines if you are out and about.

Jan Hemby's new book, "Keepsakes" is out. She will be at LaCocina on Shotwell Road on Tuesday, December 5th at 12:30 for a book signing. She is a past Woman's Club of Clayton member and several of us will be joining her for lunch. All are welcome to attend. Jan was featured in our October ESO article with this book.

Our next ESO book club meeting will be Monday, December 4th 11:00 at Carolina Bleu. This will be a special "Treat" for us to kick off the holiday season. We will have a special guest joining us, our ESO State chair, Lynn Wiss. An email was sent out in detail November 18th and the responses were wonderful. As always, please let me know if you cannot join us.

The Woman's Club of Clayton will once again be presenting a Murder/Mystery Dinner for the third year in a row with students from Clayton High School, and surrounding high schools on Friday, January 12, 2024, and again on Saturday January 13, beginning at 6:00 PM

In order to have performances on these two nights, we need to ask for everyone's participation. The cash bar will be under the supervision of Brenda Gay and Sandy Nesselrode (see Brenda for assisting). We will also need ladies to help prepare individual bits of the menu, Assistance on working in the kitchen, and additional workers to serve the meals. We will also be accepting gift cards for Domino's Pizza in order for these high schoolers to have an after-event party! We would also appreciate monetary donations in order to buy the delicious chocolate on chocolate cake from Costco that everyone loved last year. Keep your receipts if you are providing monetary assistance, as you can write it off your taxes for 2024! We will have SIGN UP SHEETS available at our December meeting.

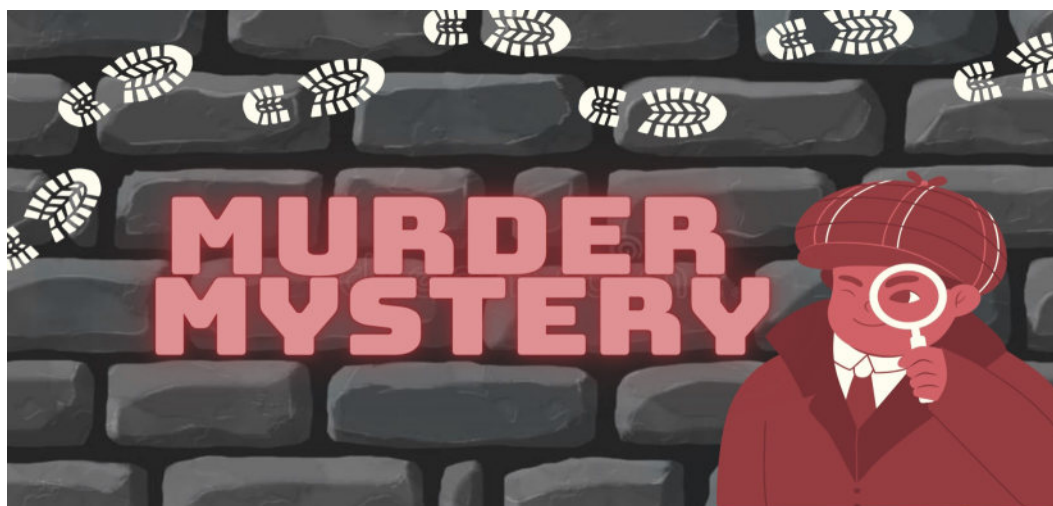

As a reminder, if you're assisting in the kitchen or serving, you will not be charged for admission because you'll be kept busy the entire evening, but please remember to buy a ticket for a performance where we can serve You! If you'd like, you can buy a ticket for a family member of one of these actors ($35) who simply can't afford the expense of a ticket to watch their child's performance. We always give monetary support to the CHS Drama Department.

Last year we were a total sell-out for each performance (60 guests per evening)! Please bring your checkbooks and/or cash to the December meeting for ticket sales and/or cash donations. We will also be accepting reservations for tables of four and six. As always, this will be an age appropriate (12 years and up) show.

There will be sign-up sheets on the back table at the December meeting. Be sure to sign up. Your support is greatly appreciated for this fun event!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Sometimes the most

the rest we take
between two deep breaths,
or the turning inwards in prayer for five short minutes.

www.prayables.com Etty Hilleson

Each day, our troops stand on the frontlines, selflessly putting their lives on the line to ensure our safety and protection from harm. One of the simplest yet most impactful ways to support our military is by expressing our gratitude. A heartfelt “thank you for your service” can go a long way in letting them know that their sacrifices do not go unnoticed. That’s why we are eager to help TWCC member Judy Ryan with her granddaughter’s project to generate letters to wounded soldiers. Judy’s oldest granddaughter, Liberty Ciraso, is the daughter of a Purple Heart recipient. He was injured on his first tour to Iraq in 2004. He recovered from his injuries and returned for his second tour of duty in 2006. He was killed soon after arriving in Baghdad by an improvised explosive device (IED) that detonated near his military vehicle. Liberty was 10-months old when he died.

Liberty is the DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) Vice-President at Corinth Holders High School where she and her fellow classmates are participating in “OPERATION GRATITUDE”. Corinth Holders High School DECA is writing letters to wounded soldiers for their community service project. Operation Gratitude is a Non-Profit organization. Their goal is to write 1,000 letters to wounded servicemen and women by December 31, 2023.

Our request to TWCC members is to write a few (or many) letters to our wounded soldiers to let them know they are not forgotten. The letters need not be lengthy but should come from the heart. All salutations are to be written to “Dear Soldier” and only your first name need be in the closing with no addresses. Corinth Holders High School will deliver all the letters. If you are willing to help in this endeavor, you may send your letters to Judy Ryan (jaryan612@gmail.com) and she will print them, or you may print them and bring them to the November or December TWCC meeting. There are many examples of letters on Google (sample letters to wounded soldiers).
