From Our President

Betsy Grannis

Our November meeting will be on the day before Veteran's Day this year. The Health and Wellness CSP and the Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP will be working together to bring you a lovely Thanksgiving feast. Please be sure you respond when the reservation request goes out so that we can have an accurate count for setup and food.

After some discussion, the Executive Board decided that our Night 'N Gals would be better served by a virtual meeting. This meeting is open to any members who wish to attend and will be on the Thursday evening following our regular meeting, at 7pm. A zoom invitation will go out to everyone on the Tuesday prior to the meeting. We hope if you cannot make it to our in-person meeting that we will see you at the virtual version!

Brenda Gay and Sandy Nesselrode have once again volunteered to decorate a Christmas Tree for the Festival of Trees hosted by the WIN group on November 12th at The Clayton Center. They have chosen a Santa Claus theme, so if you have any Santa ornaments, ribbon, etc., please contact Brenda. The flyer for the actual event is attached for more information on how to get tickets.

The Christmas Tree Lighting Committee met and determined the menu for our Food Sale. We will be serving hot dogs and barbecue sandwiches, chips, drinks and desserts the night of the Tree Lighting Celebration, Dec. 2nd. If you can get any of our food items donated (see list at our November meeting and/or contact Betsy) it would be greatly appreciated. We will have the sign-up sheets for working that evening available at our meeting as well.

The Small Town Gala Committee held a meeting on October 22nd. Much progress was made in forming the committees and a lot of good planning was accomplished. It is definitely shaping up to be a lovely fundraiser for our club. We encourage each of you to attend, sell tickets to all your friends and family, and help out where you can. This is our big club fundraiser and it takes all of you to make it a successful event!

We will be participating in the Christmas Kids program again this year, where we shop for underprivileged children. The Civitan Club has pledged their assistance, which will make it possible for us to provide for our kids. We will also be participating in the Golden Wishes program, where we provide gifts for needy seniors in Johnston County. We will have sign-up sheets at our meeting for both of these worthy projects. We also hope to have the wish lists available, either at our meeting or shortly thereafter so that we have time to shop.

I leave you with this sentiment, which certainly rings true for me:

Sandy Nesselrode as she undergoes treatment for Stage 1 Breast Cancer.

Marlene Dillon continues to recover from knee replacement surgery.

Angela Williams had surgery for blocked coronary arteries.

Loretta Mascia had back surgery.

Susan Quinn continues to have kidney issues.

Peggy Earp is having physical issues that limits her ability to attend meetings.

Debbie Allison's daughter, Melanie, has been diagnosed with invasive mammary carcinoma.

Health and Wellness continues to support House of Hope with our monthly meals. We are scheduled the second Tuesday of the month. If you are interested in helping with this worthy cause, please sign up for future meals at the November meeting.

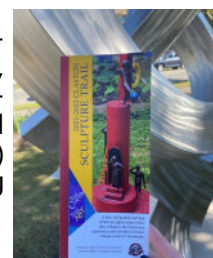

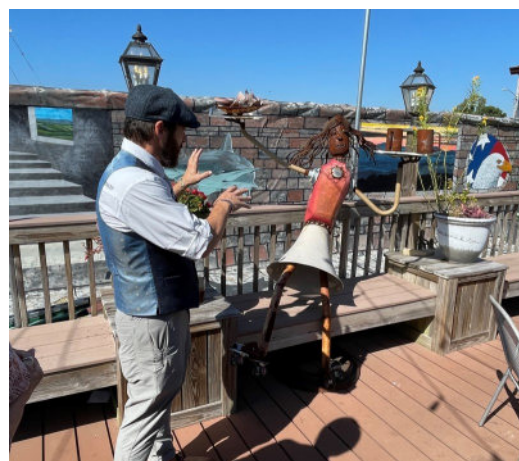

As we approach the holidays, especially Thanksgiving, we are focusing on the many things we are grateful for. "Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up with more. If you concentrate on what you don't have, you will never, ever have enough."

Health and Wellness CSP will be co-hosting the November meeting with Civic Engagement. We will be collecting paper goods for the Clayton Area Ministries. Thank you for your generosity.

November is National Healthy Skin Month. The sun is strongest between the hours of 10:00am-4:00pm even in the winter months and on cloudy days. To help prevent skin cancer it is recommended to wear at least SPF15 sunscreen year-round.

What a great turnout and a beautiful day we had for our guided Clayton Sculpture Walk! Thank you, Sara Perricone, chairwoman of the Clayton Public Art Advisory Board, for sharing your knowledge of the sculptures and artists. Special thanks to Howard Manning (of Manning's restaurant) (pictured below) who gave us a sneak peek of the mural being painted on the deck of his restaurant. Check it out!

TWCC members who enjoyed the Sculpture Walk are Jo Howard, Brenda Hill, Brenda Gay, Susan Johnson, Marianne Sapsara, Sarah Brooks, Maribeth Bailey, Nancy Maynard, Robin Sachsenheimer, Debbie Allison, Rhonda Nielsen, Betsy Grannis, Dianne Carroll, Laurie Partlo and Lynn Roman. ## Night 'N' Gals

Chair: Robin Sachsenheimer

The Night 'N' Gals will meet via Zoom on November 11th at 7pm and all members are invited to attend. The Zoom link will be sent out Nov 9th.

Education & Libraries CSP

Co-Chairs: Brenda Gay, Margaret Lee

People tend to think that everything is coming closer to being normal again for our ladies and their CSP groups. That is not the case at all for the Education and Library CSP group! We were able to prepare and provide a delicious meal for our first in person meeting in almost two years with the generous help of Betsy Grannis and other ladies from within our club. But when it comes time to continue on with our projects, we have run into several stumbling blocks!

We ordered six copies of Amy Wu and the Patchwork Dragon and were excited to be reading to the children at Cooper Academy during Read for the Record on October 24th. There were two obstacles here: Johnston County isn't allowing visitors due to Covid restrictions and our books that were ordered in July never arrived. They are evidently sitting in a cargo area in the ocean waiting to be delivered. We doubt we're the only group going through with this shortage of deliveries.

The CSP will begin reaching out to our three high schools promoting submission to the Sallie Southall Cotten Scholarship and to the Sybil Champion Community College Scholarship. We will more than likely choose to Zoom with each student entry.

Let's pray that we can open up our schools soon to extended projects and that children get back to learning and participating in sports without wearing masks!

Blessings for a Happy THANKSGIVING to all of you!

Arts & Culture CSP

Co-Chairs: Angela Williams, Faye Brooks, Dianne Carroll

Because of you ladies generous donations at the October meeting, the Arts & Culture CSP can buy all of the art supplies that the special needs art teacher needs for her students at River Dell Elementary. Thank you so much!

Thank you Brenda Hill for another amazing Library window!

Environment CSP

Co-Chairs: Rachel Masimore, Trish Perna

TWCC is partnering with Main Street Community Garden for a Halloween event October 27-31, including a haunted cemetery and pumpkin decorating/face painting for younger children. Set up will be October 25-26 so please contact Rachel Masimore if you are able to assist in this effort.

For the November meeting, bring:

- Paper products (toilet paper, paper towels) and paper grocery bags for Clayton Area Ministries
- Money/checkbook for club dues (Day-$55 for dues and $20 for lunch assessment; Night 'N Gals $55)

November Menu

Entrée will be provided by Betsy Grannis

Health & Wellness CSP and Civic Engagement & Outreach CSP will host and provide side & dessert & beverages

Civic Engagement & Outreach CSP

Co-Chairs: Susan Johnson and Susan Quinn

The Civic Engagement and Outreach CSP is to sponsor the program at our November general meeting. Our focus will be on Crime and Safety which is one of the four broad strokes of CEO per GFWC. Officer N. Johnson, the Community Policing Officer with the Clayton Police Department, will speak to us about crime in our town and preparing ourselves for emergency situations.

As a group we are asking for donations of paper towels or toilet paper to take to Clayton Area Ministries. They currently have many food items but very little paper products for their clients. Also, if you could collect a few paper bags from your grocery store visits. Food items are distributed in paper bags and their supply is low.

And don't forget to vote November 2nd!

Art Festival Chair: Susan Johnson

The members of the Art Festival Committee are at work organizing the festival for February 3rd, 2022 at the Clayton Center. Angela Williams will collect clubwomen entries again this year, and handouts were provided at the September general meeting describing each category. The information is also on the TWCC website under Member Resources. The clubwomen categories cover visual arts, crafts, and photography. Be working on your entries for delivery to Angela by the January 12th meeting or sooner. Peggy Earp is in charge of clubwomen literature as well as the GFWC-NC state chair for the literature contest. Contact Susan Johnson, Chair of the Art Festival, if you have questions or need a handout.

TWCC Bunco Chair: Sarah Brooks

Members enjoyed Bunco on September 28th. Hostesses were Betsy Grannis and Jo Howard. Lucky winners for the day: Most Buncos—Betsy Grannis; Most Wins—Brenda Hill; Most Losses—Jo Howard; Most Fakes—Rhonda Nielsen; Bunco Gift—Donna Steele.

Bunco is an extremely easy game of dice that provides members time to come together for an afternoon of fun and frivolity!! All members are welcome to participate—just let Sarah Brooks know if you want to be added to the Bunco list.

Upcoming Bunco dates: November 30 and December 28.

One of the TWCC fundraisers this year is the Jewelry Tree. Jewelry donated by members will be listed and sold on Facebook Marketplace by Margaret Lee and Trish Perna. Some things that sell well are vintage pieces, such as pins, silver (925) rings and bracelets. Contact Trish or Margaret if you have items to sell or bring the items to one of the monthly meetings.

As Chair of ESO book club, I would like to explain what ESO is since we have had several new members join The Woman's Club of Clayton.

What Is ESO? ESO stands for Epsilon Sigma Omicron and is an honorary educational society that is federation-supported and open for all GFWC (General Federated Woman Club) club members. The purpose of ESO is to provide educational pursuits and stimulate a desire for self-improvement. ESO can take the form of a reading group or as individual's personal reading pursuit.

How Do I Join? Interested GFWC-NC members must complete the ESO pledge application before they can begin working towards membership status. ESO is part of the Education & Libraries CSP (Community Service Program). If you like reading, come join us, contact Brenda Gay, Chair at 919-762-7117 – Cell or email: bmgay82@gmail.com.

The TWCC ESO book club met on Monday, October 4th at The Woman's Club of Clayton. Members present reported on great books they have read over the past months. I keep a list of all the books our book club members read each month. Although I cannot list all the books we have read or reported in this newsletter, two are listed when we met in October.

97 Favorite Foods Every Senior Should Eat by The Editors of FC & A Medical Publishing. This book provides an understanding of the nutritional building blocks needed to develop a menu that will satisfy your body and your soul. This book was reported on by Jo Howard, ESO book club member.

Blowing Rock North Carolina by Trent Margrif. Trent Margrif is an adjunct professor at Appalachian State University and helped digitize the archives of the Blowing Rock Historical Society. This book was reported on by Robin Sachsenheimer, ESO book club member. Robin has reported on several "Images of America" and this is one of them.

Our next book club meeting will be at The Woman's Club of Clayton on Monday, November 4th at 10:00. (We always meet the first Monday of the month)

"A World of books is a world of Knowledge"

GFWC-NC District 8

The District 8 Fall meeting was held via Zoom on October 9th. Elections for 2022-2024 were held, and Peggy Earp was elected to serve as President, and Rachel Masimore was elected to serve as Treasurer. Current District CSP chairs from TWCC will be asked to serve another term. They are Arts and Culture – Brenda Hill; Civic Engagement and Outreach – Donna Steele; Education and Libraries – Margaret Lee; Health and Wellness – Brenda Gay.

The theme for the meeting was "Christmas in October" and Peggy was recognized for the best Christmas sweater, as well as the scene she had in her background which included GFWC-NC information and a "Santa Stop Here" stop sign.

The service project for the meeting was making a contribution to Safe Kids, the GFWC-NC Director of Junior Clubs Special Project. A short video about Safe Kids was presented. With contributions from those who signed up to attend, $80 was collected for Safe Kids.

GFWC Headquarters is beautifully decorated during the holidays every year, and as the special activity for this "Christmas in October" district meeting, a video of last year's GFWC Headquarters decorations was shown. It also included a demonstration by GFWC International President Marian St. Clair of how to make a table decoration with a pineapple.

Recipe Corner—Thanksgiving

Mashed Winter Squash

This is an absolute must for Thanksgiving. We love the earthy flavors and the not so syrupy sweet regular sweet potato recipes. I have made this for 30 and use a buffet steamer for serving.

Ingredients

Add to each 1 cup of squash:
1 Tb butter
1 tsp brown sugar
1/4 tsp salt
1/8 tsp ginger

Instructions:

- Scrub whole squash: butternut, buttercup, acorn squash
- Place on a rack whole and roast until tender when pricked.
- Cool so you can touch it. Cut in half, scoop out seeds, peel skin off and quarter.
- Mix with enough warm cream for good texture. Use a potato masher so there are lumps and color variation. Sprinkle with glazed pecans.

NOTES:

- This can be prepared the day before and reheated in a low oven or the microwave. Add the pecans before reheating.
- If you are cooking for a large crowd cut back the butter/sugar mixture a bit.
- It can be reheated days later or frozen.

Recipe is from Joy of Cooking

Wild Mushroom Marsala Gravy

5 cups (about) mushroom, chicken, or vegetable broth
3/4 ounce dried porcini mushrooms
2-3 cups mixed wild mushrooms of your choice, cut into pieces
2 tablespoons cold water
2 tablespoons arrowroot powder
1 1/2 cups Marsala wine (or preferred wine)
1 tablespoon chopped garlic
1 tablespoon chopped fresh parsley
2 teaspoons chopped fresh thyme
2 teaspoons chopped fresh rosemary

Bring 5 cups chicken broth and porcini mushrooms to boil in medium saucepan. Remove from heat; let steep 15 minutes. Transfer mushrooms to work surface; reserve mushroom broth. Chop mushrooms coarsely and add to your fresh cut up mushrooms, and reserve on the side. Strain juices from turkey roasting pan into large measuring cup; spoon off fat. Add enough reserved mushroom broth to pan juices to measure 5 cups, and set aside. Add Marsala to roasting pan and bring to simmer, leaving all the pieces of vegetables, and scraping up browned bits; simmer for about 15 minutes, then strain out roasted vegetables and discard vegetables. Combine everything in a saucepan: garlic, parsley, thyme, rosemary and mushrooms, and your Marsala glaze from the pan. Stir in broth mixture and simmer until slightly reduced, about 30 minutes. Mix the arrowroot powder with equal parts cold water to make a slurry, and add to the boiling mixture, stirring constantly. Boil until reduced to 4 cups, stirring occasionally, about 12 minutes. If you want it thicker, go ahead and add more arrowroot slurry, no more than 1 tbsp. at a time. Season with salt and pepper.
